Beethoven's Conversation Books

In the face of his increasing deafness, by 1818 Beethoven had begun carrying blank booklets with him, for his acquaintances to jot their sides of conversations, while he answered aloud. Today, 139 of these booklets survive, covering the years 1818 up to the composer's death in 1827 and including such topics as music, history, politics, art, literature, theatre, religion, and education as perceived on a day-to-day basis in post-Napoleonic Europe.

Late Beethoven scholar Theodore Albrecht (1945-2025) lovingly translated the notebooks into English in their entirety for the first time. Five volumes are now available with a sixth expected in October 2026.
